

Protect your business in the midst of the corona-virus outbreak

1. Am I liable if someone is infected ?

Employers could be held liable for workers who contract corona-virus on the job.

2. What would it cost my business if a cluster of infections were to occur?

Lost productivity, down time, client disruption, lost revenue

3. Does my COVID Safe Plan include training and instruction on infection control?

Under national WHS laws, employees must be provided adequate training on how to manage known safety risks including infection.
